

Osteopathic/BodyTalk Disclaimer and Informed Consent Form

I _____ (print name) understand that the Osteopathic/BodyTalk session provided by this Certified Osteopath and BodyTalk Practitioner is intended to enhance relaxation, increase communication within the body, and educate me as to any emotional blocks that may create pain and disease.

Osteopathy and BodyTalk are both non-invasive, safe, objective, and have few if any known side effects. If Classical Osteopathic Joint Mobilization is used Consent will be asked for. These techniques are mainly using the bodies own innate intelligence to re-establish communication within itself.

I understand that Osteopathy and BodyTalk are not a substitute for medical treatment or medications. I am aware that the Osteopath/BodyTalk Practitioner does not diagnose illness or prescribe medications.
